Vol. 2, No. 1 October 1991

Important Reminders re: Nov. 8 - 9 Diocesan Convention

October 9 is the last day to nominate persons for Diocesan Offices: Standing Committee, Commission on Clergy Salaries & Pensions, Provincial Synod Deputy, Church Advocate, Ecclesiastical Trier, & Nominations to the Board of the Church Foundation.

Resolutions: The Resolutions Committee is now reviewing resolutions received by the deadline of September 9. The next Convention mailing, to be sent by the first week in October, will contain resolutions, an outline agenda, and other important information.

Resolution Hearings:

October 15, 5:30 - 7:30 p.m., Church of the Saviour, Philadelphia.

October 17, 7 - 10 p.m., Holy Trinity, West Chester.

October 22, 7 - 10 p.m., St. Paul's, Doylestown.

Questions? Call the Communications Office at Church House, 627-6434.

Deanery supports AIDS ministry

On September 19, the Wissahickon Deanery presented a check for $5,000 to the President of the Lutheran Home of Germantown to help fund Betak, a health care facility for persons with AIDS located on McCallum Street in Germantown. Betak is set to open in the first week in October after a long struggle by the Lutherans and many supporters from other churches and AIDS groups to receive government approval and funding. According to the Very Rev. Thomas McClellan, Dean of Wissahickon, parishes in the Deanery will be urged to provide pastoral support to patients at Betak. Call him at 482-6300 for more information.

Walk for AIDS

Join the annual AIDS WALK FOR LIFE on October 27 in Philadelphia. The 12 kilometer walk begins at and returns to the Art Museum. Parishes are urged to send groups or sponsor walkers. Or you can join a Church House/Episcopal Community Services group (ECS is one of the agencies benefiting from monies received). Call the Walkline, 351-1500, for info and registration forms.

Accessibility Task Force to Meet in Philadelphia

The Presiding Bishop's Task Force on Accessibility will meet in Philadelphia from October 10-13. Our local Task Force on the Church and the Disabled will host a reception for the members at Church House and will participate in a portion of their meeting time.

The Rev. Roger Pickering, Rector of All Souls' Church for the Deaf, is a member of the national Task Force and Shirley Smith is chair of the diocesan group.

Parishes Celebrate Birthdays

Grace Church, Hulmeville, is celebrating its 160th anniversary with an 8-week Attendance Crusade centered around the theme "Lift High the Cross."

The celebration began on Homecoming Sunday, September 29, and continues with special themes on the next seven Sundays. On the last Sunday of the celebration, November 17, Bishop Bartlett will visit in the afternoon. The Rev. Richard Ditterline is Rector, and Ron Schaffer chairs the anniversary committee. Call 757-6026 for more information.

Register Now for Oct. 5

Rectors, vicars, and parish budget decision makers are reminded to register for the October 5th "Mission & Ministry '92" program at Good Samaritan, Paoli. Call the Communications Office at Church House, 627-6434. Walk-ins are welcome, but early registration will help planning and ensure that participants receive conference materials before the 5th.

Parishes Celebrate...

Trinity Church, Buckingham, is celebrating its 150th anniversary with three special events in late October and early November, starting on October 27 with a 9 a.m. Service of Thanksgiving. Bishop Turner will be the officiant. The service begins with a procession from Historic Trinity Church to the new church.

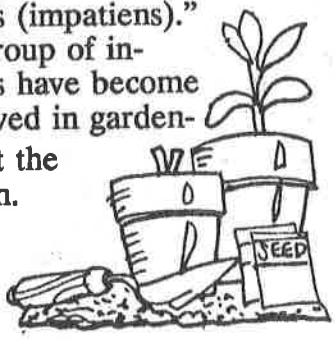
On October 31, Evensong and Eucharist will take place in Historic Trinity Church, celebrating the anniversary of the founding of the parish.

A "tour and tea" will be offered to those who would like to tour the four buildings of the parish on November 3 from 2 to 4 p.m.

A gift to inmates at Graterford

The Men's Group of St. James', Perkiomen, donated gardening tools and planting materials to the St. Dismas' Mission Congregation at Graterford Prison earlier this year. Inmate Matt Epps wrote a thank-you note to the church: "Very special thanks, too, to Chris Heath, who delivered the much-needed wheelbarrow, shovel, hoe, fertilizers, potting soil, flower bulbs and seeds, vegetable seeds, flower pots, baskets and containers, picks and floral tape, and bedding plants (impatiens)."

A group of inmates have become involved in gardening at the prison.



Helpful Advice for Clergy

The Rev. Douglas G. Scott, Rector of St. Martin's, Radnor, has co-authored a book that gives clergy advice on dealing with major changes such as leaving a parish or joining a new congregation.

Entitled Major Transitions, the book is the fifth in a series of eleven books that are designed to help clergy with preaching, pastoral care, conflict, teaching, and other matters. Scott wrote sections of Major Transitions on demonstrating leadership capabilities in an interview with a prospective employer, making a smooth transition into a new congregation, and using the congregation's history to help chart its future.

Scott co-authored the book with Ed Bratcher, a Baptist, and the Rev. Robert Kemper, a Congregationalist. Major Transitions is published by Multnomah Press in Portland, Oregon.

Episcopal Life

Episcopal Life on tape

Episcopal Life subscriptions are now available on tape for the blind, visually impaired, or anyone who has difficulty holding a paper. If you know someone who will find this helpful, let them know. A subscription is always a nice gift. Contact: Episcopal Life, Philadelphia Office of the Episcopal Church, 1201 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, PA 19107, Tel. (215) 564-2010, Fax (215) 564-6336.

Corrections

The July/August Around the Diocese included a news item about Alcohol-Drug Awareness Sunday on November 17. In the news item, an incorrect address and telephone number were given for the National Episcopal Coalition on Alcohol and Drugs (NECAD). NECAD has relocated to the following address: 876 Market Way, Clarkston, GA 30021; 1-800-395-6322. Packets for Alcohol-Drug Awareness Sunday are still available from NECAD for $5.

Ordination date correction: The September Around the Diocese calendar included an incorrect date for the Ordination to the Diaconate of Josephine Anne Demby. The correct date for Demby's ordination is October 2, 7 p.m., at St. Mary's, Bainbridge. Bishop Bartlett is the officiant.

Vol. 2, No. 3 December 1991

Convention Review

The December issue of The Pennsylvania Episcopalian contains extensive coverage of the actions of the 208th Diocesan Convention that met November 8-9 at the Church of the Saviour. Shown below is a summary of actions on Convention resolutions (not listed are certain standard resolutions of courtesy):

R3, 1992 Program Budget: adopted

R4, Change to the Diocesan Constitution: adopted

R5, Endorse Merger of Grace Epiphany: adopted

R6, Revised Articles of Incorporations & Bylaws for parishes: adopted

R7, Welcome St. Dismas and Mar Thoma Churches: adopted

R8, Clergy Financial Assistance Assessment in the amount of $60,000: adopted

R9, Parish Compensation Guidelines for 1992: adopted

R12, Bicentennial Celebration, 200 Years of Black Presence in the Episcopal Church: adopted

R13, Use of Diocesan Funds for Improper Purposes: defeated

R14, Diocesan Giving to the National Church: adopted as amended by the movers and Convention: the revised resolution calls on the Bishop to appoint a committee to prepare a resolution for the 209th Convention outlining a new method of calculating the apportionment asked of dioceses by the National Church. If passed by Diocesan Convention, the resolution would be sent to the 1994 General Convention.

R15A, On Facilitating Debate at Diocesan Convention: adopted as amended: debate is to alternate between "pro" and "con" speakers.

R16, On Nominees Stands on Major Issues, adopted as amended (editorial changes)

R17, On the Christian Church in the Middle East: adopted

R18, On U.S. Central American Policy: adopted

R19A, On Not Ordaining Homosexual Persons: defeated in a vote by orders: Clergy: yes, 48; no, 98; Laity: yes, 70; no 57.

Two resolutions arising out of the Bishop's Address were adopted:

R30, On a Diocesan Focus on Black Ministry in 1992; and

R31, on Commending the Efforts of the Secretary of State in helping initiate talks between opposing parties in the Middle East.

Convention adjourned on Saturday, November 9, before all resolutions on its agenda were heard. Six resolutions were referred to the November 23 Diocesan Council meeting at St. Stephen's, Philadelphia.

R21, The Decade of Evangelism, was withdrawn by the movers prior to the Council debate. Action was taken by Council on the remaining resolutions as follows:

R20, A Central Focus for Studies of Sexuality: defeated

R22, Non-Discrimination in the Diocese: defeated

R23, Calling on Parishes to Renew Commitment to Energy Conservation: adopted

R24, Parish Handbook for Christian Environmentalism: adopted

R25, Visiting Bishops: defeated.

An article on the Council meeting, including coverage of the debate and voting on the Convention resolutions, will appear in the January issue of The Pennsylvania Episcopalian.

At its November meeting, Council elected the Rev. Miriam Acevedo-Naters and Margaret H. Moore to 3-year terms on the Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions (see page 3 for Convention Election Results).

The Diocesan Family is invited to a Celebration of our new Cathedral Church of the Saviour, 38th & Chestnut Sts., Philadelphia Sunday, January 12 3:30 p.m.

Conference on Christian education

Christian education of three- to seven-year-olds is the topic of "Godly Play," a February 1 conference to be held at St. Mary's at the Cathedral, 630 E. Cathedral Rd., Philadelphia. The Rev. Dr. Jerome W. Berryman will present his approach to education, which uses figures and art materials and is based on the image and theology of the Parable of the Good Shepherd. The program is designed for clergy, teachers, Christian educators and parents interested in the Christian formation of the younger child. Sponsored by the Diocesan Christian Education Committee, "Godly Play" runs from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. For more information, call 387-7748.

The 5th Annual Bishops' Ball will take place from 8 p.m. to midnight on Friday, January 3, at St. Mary's at the Cathedral, 630 East Cathedral Rd., Philadelphia. Seventh-graders through adults are invited to come and enjoy this holiday dance and socialize with the Bishops and their wives. Admission fee is $5, plus one canned good. Guys: jackets and ties. Girls: semiformal. For more info, call 387-7748.

"Conversations" on Parish Adult Education

"Conversations" will take place on February 8 (registration at 8:30 a.m.; program runs till noon) in the Undercroft of the Cathedral Church of the Saviour, 3723 Chestnut St., Philadelphia. The event is designed to provide parish education leaders with the opportunity to share with each other what they are doing or not doing, what is working or not working, and what is needed from the Education Center and its Committee. Printed and audio-visual materials will be displayed along with information on how to obtain materials that leaders want. Those attending will come away with lots of ideas about how to plan and build parish programs and how to find resources. Info: 387-7748.

Church Club awards annual scholarships

John D. Alexander, a member of St. Stephen's, Norwood, and Frederic F. Guyott, III, of the Church of the Saviour, were awarded $1,000 scholarships from the Episcopal Church Club of Philadelphia for the academic year 1991-92. Alexander, one of last year's winners, is a senior at Virginia Theological Seminary. Guyott is in his second year at the Episcopal Divinity School in Cambridge, Massachusetts. Guyott is the first full-time student to enter EDS from the Diocese since 1980.

"We are particularly pleased," said Church Club President John W. Powell, 2nd, "that both of these gentlemen have expressed the desire to serve in the Diocese of Pennsylvania when their studies are completed and they are ordained priests."

1993 Budget Planning

Application forms for requesting funds from the 1993 diocesan budget will be sent in early January to programs, agencies and committees funded in 1992. Should you know of a diocesan program (proposed or not currently supported by diocesan monies) which you believe should be considered by the Program Budget Committee, please call Bill Powell at Church House (627-6434) and ask for an application form.

Applications should be submitted in early February. They will be reviewed by the Bishop's staff and sent to the Program Budget Committee, which assigns each application to one of the five mission goal committees for review, consultation and recommendation.

In March and April the Program Budget Committee will review all recommendations and draft a proposed budget for submission to the Finance and Property Committee. The proposed budget is then sent to Diocesan Council, which is responsible for final content of the budget resolution presented to Diocesn Convention in November 1992.

Questions may be directed to Arlene McGurk, Chair of the Program Budget Committee (692-6713) or Bill Powell.
